THANK YOU TO MARK STEFANIEW & THE DPS FOUNDATION

Thank you to Mark Stefaniew, lead bassist for the Denver Philharmonic Orchestra for working with our students this semester! Mark's support is made possible through the A to Z Grant.

ANNOUNCEMENTS: Instruments will be checked in tomorrow and Friday. All instruments must be returned in good playing condition, with bows, shoulders rests (violins), stoppers (cellos), cases and Essential Elements Book.

Priscilla Shaw-Rahn - Director

Holly McMahon - Accompanist

Mrs. Shaw-Rahn studied music at Texas Christian University and has been a music educator and administrator for 29 years. She has worked in urban, suburban and rural districts in Texas, Alaska and Colorado. She has directed choir, band, orchestra and modern band as well as conducted The MountainAires, a community men's Barbershop Chorus. In addition, Priscilla is a volunteer pianist at her church. Priscilla is married to multi-Grammy nominated, #1 Billboard saxophonist & producer, Darren Rahn. They have one son in high school and a Chiweenie named Zoe. Priscilla loves to make soap and candles and snowboard.

Holly McMahon is a sophomore at the University of Colorado, Boulder studying composition with Annika Socolofsky and various other professors, and piano with Andrew Cooperstock. She won third place in the 2021 National Federation of Music Clubs Junior Composer Contest in 2021, and participated in the National Federation of Music Clubs American Composers festival in 2018, 2019, and 2022 (on the piano). She has studied with Stephanie Cheng, of the University of Denver, as well as various other instructors in jazz and classical piano, clarinet, and composition.
